

Resetology: Calming and Connecting Secrets From The Principals Office

Imagine this ... You no longer have to repeat yourself. You no longer have to raise your voice to get a response. Your kids listen without you getting angry. All you want is to reach your kids without screaming. Without yelling. Without losing your cool (again). There's a better way than what you've been living. You know it. You've always felt it. But until now, it's eluded you. In Resetology: Calming And Connecting Secrets From The Principals Office, Jim House shows you simple and easy ways to quickly calm your kids, transform their irritating moods, and connect in the fun ways you've always longed to. Jim developed the Resetology techniques while working with thousands of poorly behaved kids as principal of several schools in gang-riddled neighborhoods where respect was only earned, never just given. These simple techniques are powerful and will give you a sense of confidence that you never imagined you could have in managing your children's behavior and emotions. And best of all, they will help you create the feeling of family and belonging you've always known was possible! And have fun doing it! Have the peace you deserve. Give them the peace they deserve. Uncover the techniques that are going to change the way you've dealt with your kids in the past. Now, you hold everything you need to manage your bundle of joys not-so-joyous behavior. And what about those times when you do lose it? It's going to happen, but Resetology has a specific four-step process you will use to repair and restore your relationship to reconnect. The book is packed with fly-on-the-wall stories of Jim using these techniques in a range of challenging situations--from gang kids who've been fighting to stubborn honor students--as well as stories from parents trained in Resetology. Become the parent you always wanted to be the one you were meant to be!
