

Conflict of Interest: A #GeekLove Contemporary Romance (Version 2.0)

This is Book 2 of 2 in the Version 2.0 series, and can be read as a stand alone novel. Scott McAllisters attitude is as much a part of his software empires public image as its bestselling video gametheres no way hes letting his board of directors force him to behave just because someone might be watching. Then he meets his new publicity manager. Kenzie Carter is gorgeous, intelligent, and order driven to a fault. Having her around is the perfect excuse to get down and dirty during business hours. While hes at it, hell show her the appeal of embracing chaos, and claim hes complying with the boards edict. And as long as he doesnt fall for the woman whos supposed to make over his geeky exterior, he can pretend screwing around with her isnt a conflict of interest. Warning: This book contains a score-list topping, top secret office romance between a billionaire video game executive and his publicity manager. Publishers Note: This book was previously released as Conflict of Interest (Bits & Bytes Book 1). It has been newly edited for this re-release.
