

A personal, honest, and humorous portrayal of the artist's life, this series of intertwining, autobiographical anecdotes are shared with the same ease as one would do in an after-dinner chat among friends. Nacho Casanovas stories are spontaneous and funny, tender and realistic, painful and sincere, revealing the experiences and emotions of a young artist. From drinking with his friends and details of his romantic life to trying to make it as an artist, this collection of graphic journal writing presents a cohesive narrative that will appeal to young urbanites and aspiring artists. This work is in association with Diabolo Ediciones.
