

The Cevennes Journal: Notes on a Journey Through the French Highlands

For my part, I travel not to go anywhere, but to go. I travel for travels sake. The great affair is to move. - RLS
In September 1878, Robert Louis Stevenson travelled by donkey through the Cevennes region of France. For personal memory - and, as it happens, for literary posterity - the young Stevenson recorded copious notes on his journey as he travelled. Some of these witty and incisive impressions were subsequently published in Travels With A Donkey. The remainder, however, didnt find its way into print until the first publication of The Cevennes Journal in 1978, one hundred years later. This travelogue, which also includes several of Stevensons previously unpublished sketches of the region, provides both a unique socio-historical document and an important piece of literature.
