

Reclaiming Eden: Taming the Serpent Ego

While the totality of God is beyond our comprehension, certain aspects of Him ARE knowable. When He planted His own image within each of us, He gave us a glimpse into His true and full nature that would serve as our guide and source of energy as we go through life. It's His intent, as a loving Father, to bring us all back into His Kingdom, to return to Eden, to reclaim the spiritual heritage He meant us to have. To do this, we dissolve the barriers that grow between us - to tame the serpent ego. Only then can each of us become the person He meant us to be, serving Him in our own unique way, a way that no one else on earth could ever do.
